Intention to claim a tax deduction:

I am lodging this notice before the day that I lodge my income tax return for the year stated above and the end of the income year after the year stated above.

At the time of completing this notice:

- I intend to claim the personal contributions stated above as a tax deduction
- I am a member of Maritime Super
- Maritime Super still holds these contributions; and
- I have not started a pension from Maritime Super using these contributions.

I have not included these contributions in an earlier notice. The information given on this form is correct and complete.

Variation of previous deduction notice:

I intend to claim the personal contributions stated above as a tax deduction. I wish to vary my previous notice for these contributions by reducing the amount I advised in my previous notice. I confirm that either:

- I have not lodged my income tax return for the relevant financial year and this notice is being lodged on or before 30 June in the financial year following the year the contribution was made; or
- the ATO has disallowed my claim for a deduction for the relevant financial year and this notice reduces the amount stated in my previous notice by the amount that has been disallowed.

The information given on this form is correct and complete.

Important notes

Claiming a tax deduction

The amount you can contribute and claim as a tax deduction is subject to the concessional contributions cap.

Personal contributions which you do not claim as a tax deduction, and those which you claim as a tax deduction above the concessional contributions cap, will also be subject to the non-concessional contributions cap.

To learn about contribution caps and taxation, refer to the Membership Supplement for your membership category (available from the website or by calling Member Services on 1800 757 607).

What do I need to do to claim a tax deduction?

Complete this form and send it to Maritime Super. Once we have received this form, we will send you an acknowledgement which you will need when completing your income tax return.

You must lodge your form before all of the following:

- the day you lodge your income tax return for the financial year
- the end of the financial year following the date you made the contribution; and
- the day you withdraw or transfer the contributions (including to an income stream within Maritime Super) or cancel your Maritime Super membership.

When should I send my notice to Maritime Super?

You can complete this form each time you make a personal contribution that you intend to claim as a tax deduction. Alternatively, complete this form after you have made all your contributions for the year.

We will send you a new form for future contributions each time we acknowledge your personal contribution deduction.

Quoting your tax file number (TFN)

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, Maritime Super is authorised to collect your tax file number (TFN) which we will treat as confidential and will only use for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future due to legislative change. We may disclose your TFN to another super provider when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request Maritime Super in writing not to. It is not an offence not to quote your TFN. Giving your TFN to Maritime Super will have the following advantages (which may not otherwise apply):

- we can accept all types of contributions to your account and you won't pay extra tax on contributions
- no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your super benefits
- with your consent, we can search the ATO's SuperMatch system from time to time to find your lost super held by the ATO or super you have with other funds; we will notify you of any super found and offer to consolidate your benefit into Maritime Super; and
- it will be much easier to trace different super accounts in your name so that you receive all your super benefits when you retire.
